

It is an invasion of my personal space to have to listen to these lengthy, unnecessary conversations. Should this practice be allowed, then I will cease flying.